CATALOGUE PRESENTATION

Catalogue Overview

A great opportunity to inform and contact users and decision makers

Our Chemie.DE portal for the chemical industry is much more than a mere industry website. We publish industry news, product/company information and more – not only on our website but also in our corresponding weekly English and German language newsletters. These reach 30,000 qualified subscribers, approximately two-thirds of whom work in the German-speaking countries. On top of this, many more readers visit our website every day for the very latest industry news.

Catalogue Presentation

This makes Chemie.DE the ideal medium for getting across information to industry and academia professionals who work in chemistry, analytics or labs. In fact, many readers who read our advertisers' presentations wish to know more and, through a click that opens a contact form, can submit detailed contact information which we forward to our customers without delay.

For companies wanting to make headway in the German, Austrian or Swiss markets, catalogue presentations are simply ideal, thanks to the excellent cost-benefit ratio.

A catalogue presentation comprises:

- catalogue title or headline, subtitle
- description of catalogue/product range in up to four languages (German, English, Spanish, French)
- company logo and photos of catalogue
